

13TH ANNUAL RECYCLED
FASHION SHOW

RESTYLED

7-11PM | PRESENTED BY
BRIAN & NELLY RICE

Young At Art Museum is thrilled to present our fiercest fashion show yet! Mark your calendar for the 13th Annual Recycled Fashion Show *Wild Restyled. Join us in celebrating the creativity and voice of teens from the museum's Volunteer Program and PACE Center Broward, an alternative high school for at-risk teen girls.

Each year we challenge teens to design sustainable fashions that bring awareness to environmental issues using recycled materials. This year designers will be asked to create wearable garments inspired by endangered animals and incorporate aspects of our new exhibition LightScapes by acclaimed Miami-based artist Haiileen.

Our teen designers devote an average of 70+ hours creating their outfits and participate in Make It Work Days that include college level coursework in fashion design, concept development and pattern making. The culmination of their hard work is a professional runway show where they will debut their garments. Artistic experiences, culinary delights and music complete this colorful evening.

100% OF NET PROCEEDS FROM THE EVENT BENEFIT YAA'S COMMUNITY INITIATIVES THAT SERVE LOW-INCOME CHILDREN, FAMILIES AND AT-RISK TEEN GIRLS.

YOUR SPONSORSHIP SUPPORTS OUR COMMUNITY INITIATIVES

ARTREACH

is a free, after school enrichment program for homeless youth and teens living in Broward emergency and transitional shelters or in Independent Transitional Housing. ArtREACH provides art and academic, emotional and behavioral support for the child while enabling their parents to pursue and retain employment.

ARTHOUSE

is a socially engaged, art-based initiative in the Sistrunk Corridor, one of the most impoverished communities in the nation. YAA has transformed a vacant duplex into state-of-the-art studios for painting, drawing, printmaking and ceramics where teaching artists work with residents to create personal and community-enhancing works of art.

STEAM @ SUNLAND PARK ACADEMY

integrates the arts into the STEM curriculum at Sunland Park Academy. The program provides instruction, teacher training, classroom resources and parent involvement and strengthens YAA's role as an advocate and leader in providing arts-based education within the formal education system.

GIRLS 'N POWER

is a gender empowerment program conducted at the PACE Center Broward. The program encourages at-risk teen girls to use the creation of art as a tool to find their voice and self-worth.
