Character Creation Challenge & Coloring Book
by David Anasagasti

David Anasagasti is a Miami street artist, known for his murals of stylized eyes that can be found all over the world! Using David’s eyes above, draw your own face or character, and add a body or background if you’d like. Then email us a photo of your character! David will select his favorite character and the winner will be contacted and sent a special artwork from his collection!

BONUS: Four original pages designed by David to color however you like!

Email photos of your art to: yaamuseum@gmail.com
