Safety of every child in our care is our utmost concern. To reduce the spread of any illness, we follow Local, State, DCF and CDC precautions and guidelines. Your child will be sent home if (s)he exhibits any of the following symptoms: high fever (100°F or higher), body chills, vomiting, diarrhea, severe cough, difficulty breathing, unexplained rash, or other unexplained symptoms that causes your child discomfort and may be contagious to others. IF YOUR CHILD SHOWS ANY OF THESE SYMPTOMS YOU WILL BE CONTACTED AND THE CHILD MUST BE PICKED UP FROM CAMP WITHIN 30 MINUTES BY A PARENT OR EMERGENCY CONTACT. Children should not be medicated and sent to camp if they have any symptoms of discomfort or symptoms that may be contagious.

Refunds/credit will not be issued for days missed.

AGE REQUIREMENTS

Children must turn the minimum age for the camp they are registered for, on or before the day in which the camp starts. ANTI-BULLYINGPOLICY

Young At Art Museum has a zero tolerance policy for bullying. Young At Art is committed to protecting its campers, staff, and volunteers from bullying, harassment, or discrimination for any reason and of any type. Young At Art believes that all campers, staff and volunteers, are entitled to a safe, equitable, and harassment-free camp experience. Bullying, harassment, or discrimination will not be tolerated and shall be just cause for disciplinary action.

Bullying is defined as: systematically and chronically inflicting physical hurt or psychological distress on one or more students, employees, or volunteers. It is further defined as: unwanted purposeful written, verbal, nonverbal, or physical behavior, including but not limited to any threatening, insulting, cyber-bullying or dehumanizing gesture, that has the potential to create an intimidating, hostile, or offensive environment or cause long term damage; cause discomfort or humiliation; or unreasonably interfere with the individual’s performance or participation, is carried out repeatedly and is often characterized by an imbalance of power. Bullying may involve, but is not limited to: unwanted teasing, threatening, intimidating, stalking, cyberstalking, cyberbullying, physical violence, theft, sexual, religious, or racial harassment, public humiliation, destruction of museum or personal property, social exclusion, including incitement and/or coercion, rumor or spreading of falsehoods.

BEHAVIOR POLICY

Young At Art Museum, and its programs, are a safe place for children and families. Safety includes physical and emotional well-being. In order to maintain a safe camp environment, we require each child to also keep it safe by following camp rules which include, but are not limited to: keeping hands and feet to themselves, walking, staying with their teachers and groups, using inside voices, respecting themselves, peers, teachers, volunteers, artwork, and exhibits. If your child exhibits ongoing safety concerns including elopes/ runs away, physical aggression, or requires on-going one-to-one support the child will be dismissed from the program and the parent asked to pick up the child.

When children choose not to follow any of these rules, the following is put in place:
