

“ART-RAGEOUS” SUMMER CAMP 2022 FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Welcome to CampYAA! Your kids will have fun in an artistic, safe and clean camp environment. The following will hopefully answer most of your questions. Please review the information below since our policies & procedures change periodically.

Q. Where is Young At Art’s NEW location?

YAA has moved into the Broward Mall, 8000 W. Broward Blvd, Plantation, 33388.

Q. Where will the Summer Camp be held?

- All camps are in-person and will be held in a private classroom spaces inside the Broward Mall, separate from the museum galleries.
 - All classrooms are closed to the public.
- Fun Zone is located across from Regal Cinemas and adjacent to JCPenney
- YAA Workshop Studio located next to the Main Museum, on the corner by Lens Crafters
- Prior to the Monday morning of your camp session, you will be notified through email which camp classroom you camper will be in as well as which curbside location is appropriate.

Q. What changes is YAA making to help keep my child safe from COVID-19?

YAA plans to implement the following new measures (below) taking into consideration Local, State, DCF (Department Children and Families) and CDC guidelines, in an effort to create and maintain a safer and cleaner environment for campers and visitors

- Class sizes of 20 children per group
- Frequent sanitation of galleries
- Frequent sanitation of classrooms by teachers before the camp day starts, before and after meals, before and after lunchtime, throughout the day, and after campers leave for the day
- Ventilation of classrooms with fans to keep constant air circulation
- Children have the option to wear a mask while in camp
- Online or email camp registration
- Curb-side Drop-off/ Pick-Up
- "Stay at Home" protocol for any campers who exhibit symptoms
- Protocol for the immediate separation and pick up of campers who develop symptoms
- Social distancing encouraged in classrooms and studios
- Frequent handwashing/ sanitizing breaks sanitizer in every classroom
- Each child encouraged to bring their own personal pocket sanitizer

Q. What are my options for CampYAA this year?

This year Young At Art is offering 4 onsite options for Summer Camp. The option you choose for your child will depend largely on your child’s age and interests.

All campers will enjoy exploring the museum through guided exploration. Campers will also participate in, extracurricular activities that are on site at the mall. This includes: “Through the Artist Lens” where they will meet visiting artists and do collaborative art; movie days inside Regal Cinemas; early shopping days before the mall opens at select retailers; and art showcases at the end of the week.

Q. Can my child attend a portion of the week, or do they have to come the whole week?

- The projects are geared to carry over for the whole week. It is not recommended that campers start or leave mid-session. If you are not able to make a week commitment, then perhaps you may be interested in enrolling for a one day camp at the end of the summer.

Q. Who are the camp staff?

- They are adults over the age of 18, trained in a variety of artistic media; are First Aid & CPR Certified, Fingerprinted and Background checked, and trained by NSU UM Center for Autism and Related Disabilities (CARD).
- There will also be one (1) to two (2) Young At Art teen volunteers in each classroom who are fingerprinted by DCF and trained by YAA.

Q. My Children are 5 years old and 9 years old. Can they be together?

- Campers are grouped by age. The Museum will not promise the pairing of campers. If parents would like children together who are outside of the established age groups, the older child will have to go to the younger age group.

The age groups are normally what you see below but are subject to change:

- Ages 5 Group 1
- Ages 6-7 Group 2
- Ages 8-12 Group 3
- Ages 9-15 Drawing, Painting, Sculpture

Q. Does the museum offer a discount for multiple campers?

- The museum offers a 10% sibling discount for additional children registered for the same week of on-site camps that cannot be combined with other discounts.

Q. What are the drop off and pickup procedures this year?

- Camp drop off will be curbside.
- Curbside drop off begins at 8:45am.
- Any child with a temperature of 100°F or higher will not be permitted into camp. Once campers enter the building, they will wash their hands, put their belongings away. Parents, emergency contacts and authorized pick-ups listed on your registration will be allowed to pick up your child. If you'd like to add any other names, please call.
- Camp pick up will be curbside. Parents will pull up into the designated pick-up area and contact YAA via Brightwheel. Communicate who is picking up and the make, model and color of their vehicle. Please allow a few minutes for your child to be brought outside to your car after the message is received. Parents must be the one to notify YAA when the authorized pick person has arrived, ID must be presented when the child is brought to the vehicle. Campers will not be released to anyone without valid identification or proper contact from the parents.

Q. Do you offer before/after care?

- YAA will not be offering Extended Care for Summer 2022 to ensure time for thorough cleaning of camp classrooms.

Q. How should my child dress and what should they bring to camp?

- A face mask is recommended but not required while at camp.
- Children are encouraged to bring a pocket sanitizer labeled with their name.
- Dress in clothes that you consider play clothes that can get messy.
- We provide smocks for art activities, but acrylic paint and other art materials still get on clothes and may stain.
- Short sleeve t-shirts are preferred (long sleeves get wet or drag through art projects).
- We recommend sneakers or closed-toe shoes. NO flip flops, slippers or wheelies are permitted.

Q. What if my child needs to take medicine during the camp day?

- Pack the medicine in a Ziploc bag with dosage cup or spoon.
- Clearly label medication with your child's name, dosage and time.
- Fill out Medication Form when you check your child into camp.
- All medications for campers will be stored in the Teacher's backpack for immediate use and mobility.

Q. How can I reach camp staff during the day?

- You may use Brightwheel, the parent communication app to reach out to camp staff.
- You may also call 954-647-5610 to reach out to camp administrative staff. Please be mindful that if you are trying to reach your child's teacher, they may not be able to respond until the end of the day, when they are finished teaching.

Q. What about lunches, snacks and water?

Campers are being asked to bring a lunch, and a minimum of (2) snacks. YAA is offering camp lunch for $45/ week and $9 Pizza Fridays. Mondays and Fridays pizza will come from Pizza of Davie in Davie and Tuesdays through Thursdays from Planet Grilled Cheese located in the mall. The YAA Lunches include the morning and afternoon snacks and a water bottle. There will be a 10am morning snack time, 12pm lunch time, and 3pm afternoon snack time. Please pack enough lunch and snacks for your child to cover these designated eating times. Please send water bottles labeled with your child's name that will last him/her the whole day without needing to be refilled.

Q. What should my child bring to camp?

- OPTIONAL: A face mask and a pocket sanitizer if you choose. Masks are not required and sanitizer is available in each room.
- A bagged lunch labeled with the child's first and last name, unless purchasing a YAA lunch.
- A water bottle labeled with the child's first and last name
- Label all backpacks and personal items with your child's name, ie lunch bags, sweaters/jackets tags, and Ziploc bags with clothing.

Q. How is Movie Day happening?

- Movie Day is included in your registration cost.

- Working with Regal Cinemas within Broward Mall campers we will be watching movies within the theater.
- Campers will be escorted with their camp teachers and volunteers to and from the theater.
- Camp teachers and volunteers will chaperone and sit with campers the entire length of the movie and escort them to bathrooms and back to the classroom.
- “Movie Zap Packs” from Regal which include- jr.popcorn, 16 oz drink, and fruit snacks can be preorder through YAA. Orders must be placed no later than the day before campers attend the movie.
- Additional concessions at the theater will not be available to campers to purchase snacks at the time of the movie.

Q. What shouldn't my child bring to camp?

Children will be engaged throughout the day

- Unless it is a designated “Shopping Day” or Movie Day. We discourage campers from bringing money. The weekly schedule will note when these special days occur. Money will need to be labeled in a sealed envelope or Ziploc bag with your child's name and total amount enclosed and packed into the child's lunchbox or backpack.
- Young At Art Museum will not be responsible for lost or damaged personal items, including toys, electronic devices, clothing, etc.

Q. What if I forget artwork, lunch box or other belongings at YAA on Friday?

- All artwork, lunch boxes and other belongings are kept at the museum for 1 week after the last day of each session. Artwork and belongings must be picked up within the week. Unfortunately, items left after one- week will be disposed of due to space and health safety concerns.

Q. What are the camp rules?

At the beginning of each week campers will come up with a group name and a set of classroom rules, these rules will include:

- Listen to teachers and follow directions
- Keep hands, feet, and objects to self at all times
- Use polite and helpful language at all times
- Treat teachers, classmates, and the space, work, and property of classmates with respect
- Use inside voices and walking feet in the museum
- Handle supplies and equipment safely
- Stay with teachers, staff, and Museum group.
- Keep socially distant
- Wash your hands for 20 seconds before and after meals, after using the bathroom or at any other time

Q. What is the Behavior Policy?

1st offense – Verbal warning

2nd offense – Consequences for their actions (possibly missing out on activities) and parent notification

3rd offense – Parent notification via phone, written notice or in person by the Camp Administration or teacher

4th offense – Possible suspension or expulsion from Young At Art's Summer Program

Any action committed by a child that could or does result in injury to themselves, other *campers, volunteers or staff will result in immediate expulsion from Young At Art's Summer Program. No refunds are given if child is dismissed due to behavior issues.

ANTI-BULLYING POLICY

Young At Art Museum has a zero-tolerance policy for bullying. Young At Art is committed to protecting its campers, staff, and volunteers from bullying, harassment, or discrimination for any reason and of any type. Young At Art believes that all campers, staff and volunteers, are entitled to a safe, equitable, and harassment-free camp experience. Bullying, harassment, or discrimination will not be tolerated and shall be just cause for disciplinary action. Bullying is defined as: "Bullying" means systematically and chronically inflicting physical hurt or psychological distress on one or more students, employees, or volunteers. It is further defined as: unwanted purposeful written, verbal, nonverbal, or physical behavior, including but not limited to any threatening, insulting, cyber-bullying or dehumanizing gesture, that has the potential to create an intimidating, hostile, or offensive environment or cause long term damage; cause discomfort or humiliation; or unreasonably interfere with the individual's performance or participation, is carried out repeatedly and is often characterized by an imbalance of power. Bullying may involve, but is not limited to: unwanted teasing, threatening, intimidating, stalking, cyberstalking, cyberbullying, physical violence, theft, sexual, religious, or racial harassment, public humiliation, destruction of museum or personal property, social exclusion, including incitement and/or coercion, rumor or spreading of falsehoods.

Q. Does YAA Camp offer make-up classes, or refunds?

- There are no refunds, transfers or make-ups for absence, withdrawals, no-shows, or dismissals.

Q. Can I transfer from one week to another?

- All Transfer requests must be submitted in writing two weeks prior to the start date. Transfer approval requires a $25.00 fee per child and will be made depending on space availability. Only one transfer request per family will be accepted. Payments are not transferable to anyone outside of the immediate family. Submit transfer requests by emailing FrontDesk@yaamuseum.org.

Q. Will I be able to see my child's artwork on display?

- Yes, every Friday there will be an art showcase to display the campers projects created that week. You will receive a specific time frame for your child's camp showcase that we encourage families to come see.

If you have additional questions, please contact the museum at (954) 424 -0085 or FrontDesk@yaamuseum.org.
